Reference is made to your communication dated January 12, 1965, your reference CSCI-316/00090-65 regarding the captioned subject.

Ernest C. Raskauskas, lawyer with offices at 910 Seventh Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., on February 20, 1964, was observed entering the office of the Soviet Commercial Counselor and Press Department, Washington, D. C. Investigation subsequently determined Raskauskas' reason for contacting the Soviet office was to obtain information regarding Lithuania. One of Raskauskas' children had a school assignment to prepare a report on the country of his ancestors. Inasmuch as he was of Lithuanian descent, the topic of his report was Lithuania. Raskauskas originally contacted National Geographic Society which referred him to the Soviet Commercial Counselor. Raskauskas reportedly was disgusted with the material he obtained from the Soviets as it was all Soviet propaganda and of no value to his child in preparation of the school report.
